Villa's, Max's Spruce New Stores For Opening Next Week; 3 Drawings Set

12 weeks after closing and the rapid work of expert carpenters, plasterers and engineers, the new corner of San Pablo and Ave. today has been transformed into a new ultra modern center housing Villa's No. 1 and Max's Liquors, formerly called the S-P Corner.

Finishing touches were being added to the new buildings today and show cases will be in place over the weekend. Doors will be open to the public starting Monday, according to Villa, owner of the market and of the corner property.

A special feature for the grand opening next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, three big drawings have been planned at Villa's. Ten $100 cash prizes will be awarded on Thursday and Friday. The third drawing will be held on Saturday. Tickets for the drawings are available free at the new store.

Etingoff of Max's Liquors will observe his grand opening Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The new store will be given to the public on Saturday. The new store will be given to the public on Saturday. The new store will be given to the public on Saturday.

The new buildings follow the design of the Mechanics Building with an approximate 40 per cent increase in floor space over the old structure constructed on the site in 1915. This completes the unit of a 100 by 100 foot

"building block" as designed by Young and Lloyd, architects.

The new units are faced with split red brick, and large plate glass windows have been installed for additional light as well as carrying out the modern theme. J. Vila and Sons of El Cerrito are contractors.

Etingoff first opened his liquor and cigar store in 1923 under the name of S-P Corner.

Rites Held For Railroad Worker

Funeral services for Christopher William Cox, 63, of 1059 Key Route Blvd., who died last Thursday at his home following a year's illness, were conducted at 2 p.m. Monday from the Drawing-Room Chapel of Ellis-Olson Mortuary. Interment followed at Sunset View Cemetery.

A native of Whittlessey, England, Mr. Cox moved to Albany 29 years ago. He was a sheet metal worker and had worked for the Santa Fe Railroad Co. for the past 32 years.

He was a member of Albany Community Methodist Church, Sheet Metal Workers Union, Local 482, AFL, and Albany Post 292, American Legion.

Survivors include his widow, Ellen; two daughters, Mary of Albany and Mrs. Margaret Larson of Germany, and one grandchild.

"Back in those days," Etingoff said, "people from the Richmond area going to San Francisco had to take the street car to Albany then transfer to the S.P. train here at Solano. They always called it the S.P. corner."

"Today," he added, "the corner has lost its identity so we're changing the name to Max's Liquors."

Register Before September 11 For November Ballot

Registration deadline for the November 7th election is September 14th, City Clerk Myrtle J. McLean said today.

Residents may sign-up at the Albany City Hall Monday through Friday between 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m. Anyone unable to go to the City Hall may be registered at home by calling LAnd. 6-2168 for appointment.

There are 9,356 registered Albany voters to date, Mrs. McLean said.

Mrs. Jean Domingos of Jean's Dancing School, 1722 Solano avenue, and her assistant, Mrs. Elizabeth Ceridono, returned this week from Hollywood where they completed summer work at the University of Arts. Mrs. Domingos will offer all new material for her students when classes open on September 9th.

OAKS TEAM TO VISIT EXCHANGE

"How to pitch a curve ball, how to catch a fast one and how to make the stick pop 'em over the right field fence," will be discussed by members of the Oaks Ball Club, 7 p.m. Wednesday when the Albany Exchange Club hosts the team at the fourth annual fathers' and sons' night at Pietro's.

Manager Chuck Driesen of the Oaks will be seated as the guest of honor and Jack Greer will introduce visiting members of the team.

Exchange President Sid Weinzeimer said the annual fete had been moved up to 7 o'clock this year because at previous affairs "several of the small fry went to sleep before the real fun started."

"This was an embarrassment to some of the fathers," he said, "who proudly thought that their sons would stay awake and take it."

Henry Villa is chairman of the evening, assisted by Bill Dietz and Glenn Denny, prizes for the youngsters, and Harry Williams and Fred Fricke, decorations.

The Exchangeettes, many of whom are being relieved of "baby sitting" duties for the evening, sent a resolution to the club endorsing the affair and asked that more fathers' and sons' nights be scheduled in the future.

Albert (Al) Fahmie, youngest of the seven Fahmie brothers, reported for U. S. Navy duty last week in San Diego. He was employed at Michael's Liquor store.

Legion Post, Auxiliary to Seat Officers

Albany Post No. 292, American Legion and its ladies auxiliary unit today held a new slate of officers for 1950-51, after an election conducted by the organizations at a recent meeting.

Advancing to the commander's post in the Legion is Arthur J. Carlson, of 84 Keington Road, Berkeley, who recently was presented with the bronze star for gallantry in action at Saipan during World War II. He spent four years in military service, holding the rank of corporal in Company C of the Fourth Marine Tank Battalion of the Fourth Marine Division on Saipan.

Carlson previously received a purple heart for losing a leg, after being struck by a Japanese tank shell.

Joint installation rites will be held with the auxiliary the evening of September 11th at the Veterans Memorial Building and the public is invited to attend.

Officers elected to serve with Carlson include Don Karns, first vice-commander; Richard McAllister, second vice-commander; Jack Purcell, adjutant; Jerry Hall, financial officer; Vernon White, sergeant-at-arms; Gilson Talmadge, historian; Howard Hill, service officer; Joseph Benjamin, chaplain, and Jack Hamilton, "veteranarian."

Named for the board of directors were Ralph Buckwalter, Carl Waters, Cary Canaday, Stanley Edwards, George Mack and Carl Ross.

Mrs. Dorothy Bradlee will succeed Mrs. Jean Wollaston as president of the auxiliary. Her staff of officers include the following:

Mrs. Laura Roderick, first vice-president; Mrs. Marion Hill, treasurer; Mrs. Ruth Sloan, chaplain; Mrs. Maude Talmadge, historian; Mrs. Lois Purcell, sergeant-at-arms, and serving on the executive committee are Mrs. Mable Nelson, Mrs. Ruth Holland and Miss Marjorie Stott.

The auxiliary will meet Monday evening at the Memorial Building.

Coo-Koo Card Party Benefits Hospital

A public card party to benefit the Sunrise School for handicapped children will be sponsored by the Albany Coo-Koo Club 12:30 p.m. Wednesday at 920 Filmore St. (north of Buchanan).

All proceeds from the event will benefit a fund to replace school furniture and equipment recently

ABC Members Slate

Doll Drawing Oct. 10

Members of the ABC Chapter of Children's Home Society today announced plans for a theatre party to be held October 10th at the Albany Theatre during which three Madame Alexander Dolls will be awarded.

The three dolls—Alice the bride, Belinda and Cindy, the bridesmaids—will be displayed at various Albany stores between now and October 10th. The dolls and their complete wardrobes—including everything from bridal gowns to skiing outfits—are on display today and tomorrow at the Albany Mechanics Bank and Solano Branch Bank of America.

Tickets for the theatre party and dolls may be purchased from members or at Denham's Department Store, 1126 Solano.

The chapter held its first fund raising event of the fall season last Friday evening in a canasta party held at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Hawkins, newest member of the Albany chapter.

Members were the recent guests at a barbecue supper held at the Walnut Creek home of Mrs. Lawrence Williams.

The DeMolay Mother's Club, University Chapter, is sponsoring an evening of whist, bridge and canasta 8 p.m. Saturday at the Thous and Oaks Masonic Temple, Solano at Colusa Aves.

Mayor Frank C. Graeber this week reminded Albanyans that today is the last of a three-day period during which all over 21 are requested to register with the Albany Disaster Council as part of the city-wide mobilization program.

Registration opened Wednesday and is conducted between 7 and 9 p.m. at the Vista, MacGregor, Cornell and Marin Schools and at the Albany Recreation Center, 850 Masonic Ave.

Mayor Graeber said only data that would be helpful to the city in the event of a disaster—such as an earthquake or bombing—is being asked. He said among the questions are those concerning ages, addresses, vehicles, and whether there are any invalids in the family.

The head of the family can register for the entire family, he said.

Mayor Graeber has named Capt. Andrew Simon, USA, retired, of 926 Polk St. as coordinator for civilian defense.

Assisting with the registration are Wallace M. Webb, 881 Washington Ave., Vista; Mayor Graeber, Cornell; Lewis M. Howell, 1079 Peralta, Marin; William T. Donahue, 735 Spokane, MacGregor; and Carl J. MacWilliams, Recreation Center.

Wendel Walton, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Walton of Albany, leaves next week for Portorco, Utah, where he is to enroll in the fall semester at Brigham Young University.

COMMUNICATED

To The Editor of The Albany Times, Albany, California,

I believe if you are to lay open your columns to advertisements such as that of August 18th, Signed "Kathie Zahn" that you should inquire into the truth and factual material embodied in the contents.

Inasmuch as the writer has been named in the third paragraph, together with several untruths and mis-statements, he would like to see some corrections made.

First, the writer considers the general statement rather complimentary, since many of the persons referred to are among Albany's leading citizens and have been for many years the outstanding workers for Community betterment, Bond Drives, March of Dimes, Red Cross, P.T.A., School Bonds and much of the growth and progress of this community can be traced to their collective efforts.

Referring to the mis-statement in paragraph three: "This is the Third Time that That organization Changed Names with the same group of people involved." I was treasurer of the "Committee For The Good of The City." This group was formed to publicize, by a series of Ads in the Times the benefits of the proposed "City Manager Ordinance. When the City Council passed the Ordinance this First Organization was disbanded completely. All subsequent Organizations were independently formed, had no relation to the original group, except where some of its members may have joined later Organizations. The writer is not a member of the two
